To Appeal Firefighters Decision

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin will appeal a decision of a court master who has ruled that the town must cease use of civilian dispatchers in the fire department within ten days.

The order also states that the town must pay firefighters the difference in salary paid dispatchers as compared to a starting firefighter for the period civilian dispatchers have been employed.

Austin informed the selectmen Monday night of the order handed down this week regarding the civilian dispatchers who have been on duty at the station for approximately a two year period.

The selectmen said the matter, at this point was in the hands of the manager and he will appeal the decision to the full board of the State Labor Relations Commission.

The Andover firefighters union brought the action against the town following the employment of civilian dispatchers which began under the CETA program and has been continued.

Austin said that some of the civilian dispatchers have since gone on the department as permanent firefighter appointees.

The decision read that the town had not bargained under the collective bargaining law with regard to the civilian dispatchers. Austin said the union had been informed of the decision to use civilians as dispatchers, but apparently this does not fall under the definition of bargaining.

Further, the decision states that firefighters had been unlawfully deprived of overtime pay which might come to them, if the civilians had not been employed.

The employment of the civilians was to curb overtime in the department.

Also contained in the decision was the provision that employment of civilians might compel a firefighter to attend a fire which he may not otherwise have had to respond to, if in the

Vandals On Rampage At Schools, Cemetery

Repairing Damage

Workmen put the finishing touches to one of six smashed thermopane windows at Andover High school Tuesday morning. The two windows adjacent are awaiting replacement when the job is finished. An estimated $8,000 worth of damage was caused by vandals over the weekend at the school.

A weekend of malicious vandalism at two schools and West Parish cemetery has resulted in thousands of dollars in damage.

Police Wednesday were continuing their investigation, with some leads as to those responsible for destruction of school property at Sanborn school, an estimated $8,000 worth of broken windows at the high school and the overturning of several gravestones at West Parish cemetery.

Damage at the high school took place over the weekend and again Monday night.

A door and window were broken at the high school sometime Sunday night.

Principal Philip F. Wormwood announced over the public address system on Monday that the estimated $800 worth of damage inflicted on the building in that episode could well have been put to better use by the town's education system.

Monday night, or Tuesday morning, believed to be somewhere in the vicinity of 1 and 2 a.m., six thermopane windows were smashed.

Found after the damage was done was a 42-pound rock and a large tree stump.

Also, the vandals spray painted names on the walls of some sections of the school.

The total damage, including replacement of the double glazed thermopane windows is expected to run as high as $8,000, Principal Wormwood reports.

At the Sanborn school, off Lovejoy Road, vandals broke in Saturday night by tying the back door to an automobile and forcing it open.

Ceiling tiles were destroyed, typewriters smashed, photofax machines damaged, musical equipment destroyed. The master clock was smashed and stopped at 10:55 p.m. indicating

There's Good Young People As Well

While the severity of the damage at the high school over the weekend and Monday night focuses attention on the action of what is believed to be a few, there are examples of the majority of exemplary young people, as well.

A Bloodmobile visit at Andover High on Tuesday produced 143 donors, with all but 36 coming from the student body. For many it was the first time donating blood and was considered an excellent turnout for this initial effort.

Also, during Tuesday, an arts and crafts exhibit was held at the school to display for the students and general public work done by Andover High students.

Town Won't Pick Up Storm Debris

The piles of brush and debris left by the sudden snow and wind storm last week will have to be disposed of by residents themselves.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said this week that the town can only pick up fallen branches and limbs from town trees, and there is not sufficient manpower to handle any other cleanup duties.

Austin pointed out that town meeting this year had indicated no increased services, in view of increased costs and higher taxes. To halt normal spring activities within the department of public works would only put the department further behind schedule if it were to begin the task of picking up branches and brush from private property. The landfill site off Chandler road has been open all week and will continue through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the disposal of the brush, the town manager pointed out.

The selectmen and finance committee have indicated a desire for the town manager to save in the vicinity of $100,000 this year in operating costs, Austin said, giving further indication that the town could not expand responsibility for cleanup to private property.

Austin also noted that the forestry department, principally involved in such work is operating with only three men, the town having refused to replace an employee out on sick leave at the annual town meeting.

Former Selectmen Honored

Former Selectmen Milton Greenberg, Mrs. Janet Lake and Alan French were honored at the close of the annual town meeting last Thursday night.

Chairman Susan T. Poore of the selectmen presented the three with certificates, extending the town's appreciation for their service.

Evaluating Recreation Department

With the resignation of two top members of the Recreation Department, Director Gary Ralph and Mark Klempa, the department is to go under an evaluation period.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said this week that Ralph, who is going into private sporting goods business in his native Maine, had prepared a report prior to his leaving on the development of the Recreation Community Schools concept, developed under his direction these past five years.

The report is to be reviewed by the Recreation Community Schools Committee, then by the town manager for total evaluation followed by a determination of the direction the department would take in the future.

Austin said that after this is completed, job specifications will be drawn up and the position advertised, with a replacement for Ralph probably being named to come on board sometime in the fall.

Selectmen To Meet Monday

The selectmen will meet in regular session again Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of Memorial Hall library.

Town's Tax For County Increased

A supplemental Essex County budget approved recently by the legislature and Gov. Dukakis, will result in increased costs for operations of that branch of government for Andover Taxpayers.

Of the total $587,300 in increased costs for county government, Andover will have to pay $22,532 additional, bringing the town's annual assessment for this fiscal year to $740,236.

Tyer Workers Eligible

Approximately 400 workers at Tyer Rubber Co., division of Converse Rubber Co., Andover, have been certified by the U. S. Labor Department as eligible to apply for trade adjustment assistance.

The department found that the workers have been or may become unemployed as a result of increased imports.

The Trade Act of 1974 provides that workers who believe they have been or will become unemployed due to increased imports may petition the secretary of labor for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance.

On Jan. 31, 1977, a petition requesting a determination of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance was filed with the Labor Department by the United Rubber Workers of America, AFL-CIO, on behalf of workers and former workers producing canvas and athletic footwear at the Converse Rubber Co. plant in Andover, Mass.

A subsequent investigation by the Labor Department indicated that increased imports contributed importantly to the unemployment of a significant number of workers at the Andover plant.

The Labor Department's certification provides that all workers at the Andover plant who become totally or partially separated from employment on or after Aug. 22, 1976, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance.

The dedication will start with a muster at East Junior High school, then proceed down Chestnut street, to Central and School streets.

Col. Edward M. Harris, selectmen, will be the principal speaker and the dedication of the memorial will be by Mrs. Gammon.

A choral group from South church will offer a musical selection and a speaker from the Andover Company of Militia will address the group as the flag pole is dedicated.

The triangle has been built as memorial by the Bicentennial committee.

The boulder was placed last fall and the memorial plaque containing the names of those Andover men who gave their lives in the Revolutionary war are engraved on the plaque placed this week.

The Andover Garden Club has donated and planted the shrubbery and flowers around the memorial.

The effort is part of the wind-up activity of the Andover Bicentennial commission, which also includes restoration of a painting in Memorial Hall library, installation of lighting for flag poles at the library and town hall. Leonard arranged his school schedule this year so as to provide time to take computer courses at Merrimack College during this, his senior year. During 1975 he successfully completed a Computer Programming Course in PAL which was taught under the auspices of Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

He will attend Cornell University as a major in Electrical Engineering.

The recipients of the awards are chosen from some 15,000 seniors in the 30 school districts serviced by the AFCEA. The scholarship provides remuneration in the amount of $125 per week for the ten weeks of the summer work period. The scholarship is renewable each year of the four years that the winners are in college, thereby providing a total of $5000 for each winner. Winners of the scholarships, sometimes referred to as Fellows, must have demonstrated unusual aptitude and scholarship in the fields of mathematics, physics, science or technology. Fellows are assigned to work with a team of engineers in one of the plants associated with the AFCEA. Every attempt is made to place these students in an area of work as close to the college major of the Fellow as possible.

Open House Marks Haven's Anniversary

By Janet D. Lake

Coincident with its tenth anniversary, the Andover Haven, senior citizen drop-in center on Essex Street, has scheduled an open house for Sunday, May 22, at 3 p.m.

The Andover Male Choir under the direction of J. Everett Collins will perform and remarks will be made by various local officials including Town Manager J. Maynard Austin, Vice-Chairman Albert Cole of the selectmen, Representative Gerald Cohen, and Executive Director Russ Moran of the Merrimack Valley Home Care Corp. Displays and examples of various Haven activities will be exhibited and all Andover residents are invited to come to this special event.

The Haven — brain child of Andover's first Council on Aging — began in a small store at 15 Barnard Street with the help of a $1,200 grant from the State government. Within a few years The Haven had outgrown those quarters and moved up the street to 25 Barnard St., and more room.

The initial furnishings and equipment were provided through the generosity of local industries and service organizations, even including the now well-known station wagon. Not only did the Haven provide that helpful home-away from home, but it expanded to provide many important social services including the hot lunch program, the mini-clinics, and the outreach from the Home Care Corporation.

The first Council on Aging was appointed by the then town manager, Richard Bowen, and included Edward A. Gordon as chairman, Robert King as vice-chairman and secretary, and Hazel Wilson, Faye Elliot, Dan Kocher, and ex-officio, the town recreation director, Leslie Bartow.

Later the group was joined by Suzanne Stephens, and it was this council that established The Haven after conducting a survey by mail of all Andover residents over 60 years of age.

Natalie Stokham Sykes was The Haven's first director, succeeded a few years later by the present director, Doris Hudgins.

Not only does The Haven provide the above mentioned social services, but also sponsors classes in various skills, theater parties, trips, and other recreational activities. Although the town is now the sponsor of The Haven, the elders themselves pay for trips, parties, et cetera and their tables of goodies are always popular at Town Bazaar days — one of the elders own fund-raising activities.

Newcomers are always assured of a warm welcome and are urged to use The Haven. There are no strangers there, only friends you haven't met yet.

New Horizons Theme For Scout-O-Rama

A distinctive difference between many Scouting exhibits will be displayed at this year's Scout-O-Rama to be held on the grounds of Raytheon Company's West Andover Plant, junction of Routes 93 and 133, on Saturday, June 4.

The great scouting show, running from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., will provide a wide contrast of interests for 3,000 Cubs, Scouts and Explorers from 22 Massachusetts and New Hampshire communities that make up the Lone Tree and North Essex Councils of the Merrimack Valley.

The old and tried standbys of Scouting will be displayed, such as pioneering, tenting, fire building, cooking, edible plant identification, rope making, arts and crafts and physical fitness.

But scouting has always provided an outlet for new and promising activities and the list of exhibits for this year's Scout-O-Rama reads in part like an industrial technical show. Scouts will show their broadening ideas which support the theme of the show, New Horizons. Some of the exhibits will be electronic communication and computers, rocketry, town of the future and space odyssey.

For a look at the old and the new, at the technical and the provocative, at scouts displaying a wide range of their current interests and outlooks, reserve a part of June 4 to see tomorrow's adults in action.

Barbara W. Kidder of Andover, assistant to the dean of the College of Liberal Arts at Tufts University, recently received the Tufts University Service Citation. The award is given annually by the university's alumni association for significant and

A resident of 95 Elm St., Andover she was presented her award by Maureen Golden, vice president of the Tufts University Alumni Association, during a special ceremony held in Ballou Hall on the campus. Tough Leash Law Approved

While establishing a tax rate of possibly $58 for the next fiscal year may have been an important factor in this year's annual Andover town meeting, getting dogs under control apparently was of paramount concern to voters.

Largest attendance of the four sessions which completed business last Thursday night was registered on Wednesday night when the issue of a new dog leash law for the town was enacted.

Basically the voters rejected a proposal by the selectmen to modify the present animal control law, and opted by a wide margin a proposal presented by Sidney P. White which provides stricter penalties for non-compliance with the new regulations.

The new law must now be presented to the attorney general's office for approval before it becomes law, which could take anywhere from 90 to 120 days.

In addition to approving the new bylaw, the voters, who numbered 839 for the Wednesday session, appropriated $17,500 to implement enforcement of leash law provisions.

As for the tax rate, it would appear that the voters, who methodically plodded through a 59-article regular warrant and ten-article special town meeting warrant, approved items which will result in no more than a $5 increase.

The new rate could be either $58 or $57, still dependant on what happens at the state level with Cherry Sheet figure adjustments.

Sid White, a name virtually synonymous with Andover's governmental operations, championed the cause of a tough, new dog leash law, presenting his version which preceded about an hour and one-half of debate Wednesday night.

White commented on the loss of many of his ducks at the Argilla Road pond this past winter, in asking the voters to provide for strict controls on dogs in the town.

Emotional appeals from both sides, coupled with amendments to both the selectmen's proposed dog law and White's preceded the actual vote.

It was obvious from the tone of the session which way the voters were thinking as those who spoke in favor of White's bylaw received loud applause, while those who appealed for less stringent enforcement were accorded sparse response.

The new law provides for dogs to be kept on a leash no longer than six feet in length and also an animal shelter fee of $4 a day plus $15 administration charge for bylaw violation.

Earlier in the Wednesday night session, the voters without debate, approved a $10.3 million dollar budget for the school department and $25,- 000 for renovation and repair of the Ballardvale Community Center.

Controversy was avoided when two issues were withdrawn from consideration, one dealing with the rezoning of land near the North Reading line for additional Colonial Drive apartment construction.

The other item, which seemed headed for debate was the bylaw change proposed by Selectman Richard J. Bowen which called for capital budget planning as well as some revision in the annual budget process.

This item was withdrawn with a pledge from selectmen, school department and planning board to work together on a capital budget planning process this year.

Thursday night at the final session, voters defeated a proposal to establish a Historic District on Central street.

Originally slated for action at the October town meeting, it was withdrawn so the study committee could modify the actual district lines.

Frank Demers, chairman of the committee explained the intent of a Historic district, but the voters based principally on objections presented by Central street residents and South Church parishioners defeated the proposal.

South Church members noted that renovation of their church would be difficult due to restrictions proposed in the historic district proposal.

Other major items approved in the final two sessions, included $8,000 for continued operation of the Abbot well, voted following appeal from those who wish unfluoridated water, and granting of funds for topographic mapping of the town at a cost of $80,000 this year and a similar amount next year.

Voters approved use of up to $1.5 million from the free cash account to reduce the increase in the 1977-'78 tax rate, the amount to be established after the state funding issue is resolved.

Future Of PTO Council On Line

The Andover P.T.O. Advisory Council will meet Monday, May 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Doherty School Teachers' Room.

The purpose of this meeting will be to make a final decision regarding the future of the Council.

Because of the importance of such a decision P.T.O. presidents as well as council delegates are asked attend this meeting. Two meetings held last Fall were poorly attended and attempts to muster a quorum for the election of officers met with failure. Therefore it appears that the time has come to ascertain whether a need still exists for such a council in Andover.

Parents Group To Aid Choir

The Andover High School Choir parents met recently to organize a new Choir Parents Association. The main purpose of this group is to raise funds for scholarships and awards for outstanding achievement in choir, and to help defray expenses for such items as uniforms, exchange concerts, field trips and the numerous other activities involving the choir.

The Andover High School Choir has for many years been one of Andover's finest ambassadors of music to various groups and organizations in the Merrimack Valley. To anyone who has shopped in Andover Center the Saturday before Christmas, the choir will be remembered as providing background singing while shopping.

All parents of current choir members as well as parents of incoming choir members, and any townspeople interested in supporting the choir are urged to attend the Choir Parents Association second meeting to be held on Wednesday, May 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the music room at Andover High School.

Metrics Workshop At Museum

A workshop on metrics is the Friday night feature at Boston's Museum of Science, May 20. Held at 7 and 8, it is open to visitors without extra charge above Museum admission.

The museum bills the workshop as a "non-threatening approach" to everyday use of metrics. It promises that understanding will be facilitated through the workshop's showing of cartoon films and the participants' use of measuring devices, from metric sticks to cooking utensils.

Diorama Installed At Museum

P.C.F. Smith, curator of Maritime History at the Peabody Museum of Salem, is a scholar, writer, historian and lecturer. But many may not be aware of Mr. Smith's talents as craftsman and artist. He has almost completed a beautiful miniature of the Essex Shipyard of the 1920's.

In accuracy and appeal it rivals his Salem wharf scene which greets visitors at the entrance of the Museum's wing. All ages are entranced by the miniatures and this new diorama contains some fascinating details — some so subtle you will have to search. The pile of gray plank on one side are cut from the bottom of a crabapple that the storms brought down in the yard. As he cut them up he used the sawdust to use under the being framed in the diorama. Tiny clamps lie rusting where the careless workman has to use them. The foreman is striding across the ship that is under for planking with the rolled plans under his arm. Worn legs lean against the already framed ship. A minute stands beside the framing.

The foreman is striding across to the ship that is ready for planking with the rolled up plans under his arm. Worn staging leans against the already framed ship. A minute nail keg stands beside the framing plat-

The diorama will be installed by the end of May. With it will be a display of the Museum's unique collection of shipbuilding tools from the days when North Shore boat yards depended on more than summer yachtsmen.

Indoor Tennis Registration

Area tennis buffs have until Thursday, May 26, to register for a chance to participate in the upcoming Lawrence Intown Tennis Exhibition, which will feature Tony Roche of the Boston Lobsters. Registration forms for the exhibition, which will take place right on Essex Street on Saturday, May 28, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., are available at all Lawrence Intown member businesses.

Michael Costello, Intown Manager, stated that enthusiasts of all ages may register for two parts of the exhibition — the chance to return Roche's serve and the possibility to take part in the tennis clinic. A total of 25 names will be drawn in the two categories, with all 25 winners receiving prizes. The drawing will take place on May 26, and winners will be notified by telephone. Special awards will be made to those who successfully return Roche's serve. These will include tickets to a Boston Lobsters match and free court time at a local tennis court.

The feature event of the promotion, which is being sponsored by Lawrence Intown in cooperation with Cedardale Tennis Club, will consist of a series of exhibition matches with Roche pitted against the best players from the Greater Lawrence area. Costello added that he is currently in the process of contacting people to compete in these matches.

The blue whale is the largest creature that ever lived. Some specimens are 100 feet long.

Information On NACEL Available

Build a bridge to France? It can be done! The bridge is not made of concrete and cables but created instead by the bridge of friendship through the NACEL Summer Home Stay Program. Families throughout New England have been participating since 1969, strengthening the bridge of friendship with increasing numbers annually. (USA attendance in 1976 was 1,800).

NACEL, the North Atlantic Cultural Exchange League, is an offshoot of AVEL founded in 1957 in Tours, France. It is an independent, international, non-profit student placement organization. English speaking French students aged 14 to 21 are placed with American host families for a cultural and friendship exchange.

North of Boston area coordinator is Sancia Pruneau, 12 College Circle, Andover who would be happy to reply to any inquiries concerning NACEL.

EJHS Happenings

By Renee Pruneau

On May 5 the EJHS ninth grade Drama Club visited the North Shore Theatre-in-the-Round. While there they viewed that Shakespearean classic "Julius Caesar." Though most of the play was a little hard to handle, the costumes, acting and battle scenes were thoroughly enjoyed. The main purpose for the trip was for the Drama Club members to see professional stage actors and actresses at work. This they did. While leaving the theatre in a state of awe, they wondered if their productions could ever look like that.

Seventh and eighth grade students saw a science magic show Friday morning. It was performed by students from Wilmington High School. This was a magic show in every sense of the word. Magicians were dressed in crazy looking outfits, many of which resembled clowns, and they carried foaming, bubbling bottles of magic potions and performed many unique tricks. The East students found it a fun way to get out of class and very soon after entering the auditorium they had escaped into the wonderful world of magic.

On June 4, EJH will have its annual carwash sponsored by the student council. This is held every year to help raise money for the ninth grade dinner dance, a formal dance put on for the graduating ninth graders by the eighth graders. We hope that all Andover citizens with dirty or clean cars, bikes, trucks, campers etc. (we're not fussy) drop by the Bay State Bank and help to sponsor this worthy cause.

The East girls are again showing everyone who's best, their track team has a 3 and 0 record. School records are continuously being set and broken by this hardworking bunch. With a group like this on our side how can we go wrong? The boy's track team record is 8 and 1, another feat that we're proud of. All in all we are having an excellent track season. Here's to continued good luck in the meets ahead!

Wildflower Plant Sale

Finding plants for the wild flower garden or just to naturalize in the woods or fields is often very difficult. For people who are interested in this kind of gardening, Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary on Perkins Row in Topsfield is sponsoring a wild plant sale on Saturday morning May 21, from 10 to 2 at the Sanctuary Barn. Gardeners are asked to bring surplus plants, preferably wild, for admission to the sale, the proceeds from which will be used to purchase rare species for the Sanctuary wildflower garden. Plants will be accepted from 10 a.m. on, and unusual or limited specimens will be separated for silent auction to be called at 11:30.

All other plant materials will be sold on a first come first served basis.

Auction Success

Sold to the highest bidder!

That is what was heard again and again at the Lanam Club in Andover on Sunday evening, May 15, when the Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association hosted an art and antiques auction to benefit the Lawrence General Hospital.

The bidding was fast and lively, and the auction goers enjoyed every minute of the festivities knowing that the proceeds from the successful affair were for a very worthy cause.

The evening began at 5:30 with a preview and reception followed by a buffet supper at 6:30. Auctioneer, Philip K. Allen, presided over the bidding on more than fifty items donated by many friends of the hospital.

Mrs. Joseph Rokous, general chairman of the event, was assisted by Mrs. Thomas J. Thomas, Mrs. Joseph Pellegrino, Mrs. Richard Kapelson, Mrs. James Eaton III, and Mrs. Vincent P. Morton, Jr.

Confirmation At Temple

Shavuot is the third of the agriculturally based festivals of the Jewish year. Following seven weeks after Pesach, this harvest festival serves again to remind the Jewish people of the closeness of our ancestors to the soil, and their dependence on nature for their livelihood. Shavuot, Pesach and Sukot are characterized "pilgrim festivals," for on these days Jews from all sections of Palestine brought thanksgiving offerings of their harvests to the Temple in Jerusalem.

Shavuot, once having represented only our natural world, later gained a spiritual dimension: the anniversary of the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai. It is largely the spiritual and cultural aspect of Shavuot that has imparted to the holiday its present significance.

Early nineteenth century Reform Jews, seeking to give women equal status in all religious obligations, created the ceremony of Confirmation for both boys and girls on the holiday of Shavuot. Just as Moses received the Torah on Sinai according to Legend, and subsequently passed it to each succeeding generation of Jews.

Such Confirmation exercises will be held at Temple Emanuel in Lawrence on Sunday Evening, May 22 at 7 p.m. Members of the tenth grade who will be confirmed at this religious service are as follows:

Marla Berenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Berenson; Eric Brandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brandt; Gary Cohen, son of Rep. and Mrs. Gerald Cohen; Aileen Druth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Druth; Jill Goldstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goldstein; Heidi Hayman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayman; Joan Kaplan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kaplan; Todd Lustig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Lustig; Mark Neistadt, son of

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neistadt; Ann Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Slater; Pamela Stein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stein; Heydon Traub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Traub; Lisa Wicker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wicker; Mark Winer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold Winer; Carol Wolk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Herbert Wolk; Stacy Zeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Zeder.

As part of the exercises these young people will participate in the Festival Services and also present a special program in recognition of the 10th Anniversary of Jerusalem United. The city of Jerusalem since the time of King David has served as the capital of the Jewish state. Monday, May 16 which corresponds to the 28th day of the Jewish month of Iyar is the anniversary of the re-uniting of the city. Confirmation, following, only days after the anniversary will thus serve as the appropriate time to mark this event.

Following the service and presentation, there will be a collation tended in honor of the class by the parents of the Confirmants. The Festival Service is a public worship service and open to the community.

George Urdang, president of Temple Emanuel also announced that the concluding day of the Shavuot Festival, following Liberal traditions, services will be held on Monday, May 23 at 10:30 a.m. in the Temple Sanctuary conducted by Rabbi Harry A. Roth and assisted by Cantor Irving Shuman. Special Yizkor Memorial Prayers will be recited at that time.

American League Race Wide Open

By Rick Harrison

Every team was still eligible for the first-half championship in the American League, while the Pirates, Cardinals and Giants were in a three-way National League dogfight through games last Monday night in the Andover Little League.

In the well-balanced AL, a mere two games separated the first place Indians from the last place Orioles. Every club had won at least once, and they all had lost at least one time as well. The Pirates (5-0), Cardinals (4-1) and Giants (3-1) had things pretty much their own way in the NL.

MAJORS American Indians, 11-4

The "Bottom-Uppers," otherwise known as the tailend of the Indians' batting order, had most of the timely hits and scored eight runs among them to spark the Tribe's 11-4 triumph over the Twins.

Pete Byrne, Dave Nelson and Rob Calder contributed key safeties for the Indians, while Jay Carlson hurled three shutout innings in relief of starting and winning pitcher Bill Foley.

Sean Trombly lashed two hits, Keith Dyer doubled and Marty Yaghmorian played an excellent all-around game for the Twins.

Indians, 8-3

The Indians, although getting just four hits and falling behind 3-0 in the first inning, rallied to hand the Red Sox the first of their two straight defeats, 8-3.

Jeff Demers cracked a three-run homer in the first to give the Sox that edge, but Indians' pitcher Jim MacMillan was practically untouchable thereafter.

MacMillan, who tossed a one-hitter in his first start, stopped the defending champs on a three-hit masterpiece. He fanned eight and withstood some wildness problems throughout the contest.

Rob Leber clouted a solo homerun in the top of the third for the Tribe, snapping a 3-3 tie and sending them ahead for good.

Steve Lacourse hit in his fourth straight game, Garin Clint doubled, and Greg McAnern rapped a single and drove home three runs during the game.

Shortstop Pat Beaudine and catcher Rob Leber starred defensively for the winners. Jay Madden played a fine all-around game for the Sox, while Andy Emmert was the losing pitcher.

White Sox, 2-0

Doug Lindquist spun a sensational one-hit shutout, striking out six and walking three, as the White Sox nipped the Red Sox 2-0 on Monday night.

Dave Hering was the tough-luck loser for the Red Sox, tossing a four-hitter. Both runs came in the second inning and were unearned.

John Robbins powered the Pale Hose attack with three hits, including a pair of doubles, while Doug Lindquist singled.

Dick Kelley's single in the fifth was the lone Red Sox safety, but on the hit White Sox centerfielder Rick Desmarais made a key play by gunning down a baserunner at third.

Twins, 4-3

Trailing 3-2 entering the bottom of the sixth, the Twins pushed across a pair of runs to knock the Tigers out of a first place tie, 4-3.

Picking up the mound win was 11-year-old righthander Brian Berry, who scattered seven hits, whiffed three and walked only one to lift his personal ledger to 2-1.

Sean Trombly went 2-for-3 for the Twins, Keith Dyer slugged a long RBI double off the top of the fence, and shortstop Marty Yaghmorian (.533 batting average) was a defensive standout again.

Scott Zimmerman had a perfect 2-for-2 night for the Bengals, Sean Noone went 2-for-3, Bill Weidman starred in centerfield, and Matt Wells absorbed the pitching loss.

Tigers, 5-3

The Tigers spotted the White Sox a 3-0 first inning advantage, then erupted for five markers in the fifth to pull out this victory.

Matt Wells and Todd Young hurled three innings apiece for the Bengals, combining for a crisp four-hitter and 12 strikeouts. Wells was credited with the victory.

Scott Zimmerman keyed the pivotal fifth frame with a two-run triple. Wells helped himself with two singles and a run-scoring double, and Mark Nardone also slammed a two-bagger.

Doug Lindquist and Robbie Retelle shared the Sox' pitching duties, relinquishing eight hits.

Doug Lindquist was 2-for-3 at the plate, while brother Ron Lindquist hammered a double.

Outfielder Bill Weidman and catcher Sean Noone were defensive stars for the Tigers, while catcher Ron Lindquist and Doug Lindquist (shortstop for three innings) led the White Sox fielding corps.

Orioles, 11-4

The Orioles, new to the AL this season, dumped the Twins 11-4 to record that historic first victory.

Tom Bolduc was the winning pitcher in relief of Chris Coots, who worked the first three innings.

Pete Ouellette and Chris Coots led the offensive assault with perfect 3-for-3 efforts for the O's.

Brian Barry and Ed Lewandowski shared the mound chores for the Twins. Jim Lowe lashed a pair of singles and Keith Dyer doubled in a losing cause.

Yankees, 10-9

Bill Noyes drove home the tying run in the bottom of the sixth inning, and then Steve Johnson followed with the winning RBI, as the Yankees rallied to nudge the White Sox, 10-9.

Bill Vickers spiked three hits and collected the pitching win after one inning of solid relief for the Yanks.

Ron Lindquist paced the Sox by stroking two safeties.

Yankees, 13-8

Rob Slayton drove across four runs with a long homerun and another hit, boosting the Yankees past the Orioles 13-8.

Dennis Glynn drilled a trio of safeties, and Billy Vickers chalked up his second pitching triumph with three innings of work.

Chris Coots was Mr. All-Around for the Orioles, clouting a two-run double and starring defensively at shortstop for the rookie AL entry.

National Highlights

Fred Lemay of the Dodgers tossed a no-hitter and fanned 13, as that rookie club dumped the Braves 8-1. Lemay helped himself with a brace of doubles and one RBI.

John Lawless, Vito Caiati and Fred Lemay stroked three hits apiece as the Dodgers made it two straight, edging the Cubs 7-5.

The undefeated Pirates handed the defending champ Giants their first loss, as winning pitcher Dave Factor struck out 11 in a well-played 3-2 game. Bill Feeney led the Bucs' attack with two hits and a pair of RBI.

Chris O'Reilly of the Cardinals laced three hits and drove in three runs, as that club remained in the thick of the race with a 6-5 squeaker over the Mets. John O'Connor had two RBI for the Mets.

The Giants blasted the Cards 10-1 on the strength of Greg Sacco's pitching. He fanned 10, while Chris Scarpa led the offense with two hits and three RBI.

The Cubs broke into the win column behind pitcher Bob McLaughlin, who fired a one-hit shutout and whiffed 14 in a 4-0 victory. Steve Umanzio delivered the lone Mets' safety.

The Braves nipped the Cubs, 7-6, as Chris Williams went 3-for-3 and Matt Kiley belted a homerun.

MINORS American

White Sox, 14-7

The White Sox broke into the win column by trimming the Senators, 14-7, as winning pitcher Pete Fernandez homered and Dan McDonald hammered a triple and drove across three runs.

Dave Levin belted a homerun for the Senators, while Paul Henahan and Dave Workman shared the pitching chores.

Orioles, 12-8

The Orioles also dropped the Senators, 12-8, as Steve Perlberg and Dan Sheehan pooled talents on the mound. Anne Maher sparked the O's offense with several timely hits.

Dave Levin and Jim Hashem paced the Senators' effort.

Orioles, 7-6

Tom Brand went the six-inning distance on the mound, Steve Perlberg cracked a key triple, and Dan Sheehan was a defensive star as the Orioles nipped the Patriots, 7-6.

Scott Prussman led the Pats' attack and Jim Griggs was the tough-luck losing pitcher.

National Cardinals, 9-4

The high-flying Cardinals continued undefeated and took sole possession of first place, trimming the defending champion Pirates 9-4.

Winning pitcher Chris Wilson fired a six-hitter for the Cards (6-0), while the key offensive blow was a three-run triple by Matt Leonard in the first inning. Dave Webster added two hits and was a defensive star.

Rapping out solo safeties for the Pirates (4-1) were Wayne Carver, Sean O'Shea, Dan Fraser and John Williams.

Pirates, 14-12

Earlier in the week the Pirates outslugged the Dodgers, 14-12, as winning pitcher Sean O'Shea, Dan Fraser, Wayne Carver, Dave Fraser and John Williams all spiked two hits for the Bucs.

Mike Sanchez stroked three safeties for the Dodgers while Jim Banfield, Mark Boyle and Glenn Leitch contributed two hits apiece.

Cardinals, 13-11

The Cardinals remained perfect with a 13-11 triumph over the Braves, led by Dave Webster with a three-run triple and five RBI altogether.

Pete Johnson slammed three safeties, including two triples, Matt Leonard had three hits, and Chris Wilson laced a pair of safeties and starred defensively. Todd Deery was the winning chucker.

For the Braves, Doug Wayland, Ron Liss, Mike Hobbs and Pete Stelzner all drilled three hits.

Cardinals, 12-9

The Cardinals edged the Phillies, 12-9, as winning pitcher Harold Whitworth helped his own cause with two hits. Dave Webster banged out three safeties, Chris Wilson two and Todd Deery two.

Bill DiAdamo delivered three hits for the Phils, while Scott Stevens and Jeff Shupe stroked two bingles each.

Gusty Action In Soccer League

Saturday Afternoon
Kicks

Bryon Poisson, eight, a student at Sanborn school, gets ready to kick toward goal during action in Andover Soccer Association competition Saturday afternoon at the Sacred Heart Field.

By Marc D. Koolen

Gusty winds prevailed over much of the soccer action this weekend and proved to be a major factor in the outcome of several games conducted by the Andover Soccer Association. With the season now at the half-way point the stats show that a number of Andover teams still boast undefeated records, but will have difficulty this coming weekend defending them.

Both under 10 teams fell to powerful Marblehead squads, as Marblehead continues to exhibit soccer talent at all age levels. The Golden Warriors, under coach Bill Tarbox, lost a tough one Saturday 2-1 to the Marblehead A team. It appeared as if it would be all Andover as Fran Sullivan took a pass from Ted McEnroe in the penalty area and drove it into the nets with only 30 seconds gone in the game. Marblehead reorganized quickly and put tremendous pressure on Andover goalie Craig Sorrie who turned away shot after shot, each of which was aided by a snappy tailwind. At the quarter Andover lead 1-0, and now had the wind. Marblehead adapted well, however, and the second quarter proved to be a stalemate. In the second half Golden Warrior's forward Barry Tucker took 2 breakaways down into the oppositions penalty area, only to have his shots touched aside by diving Marblehead saves. Just before the end of the third period, a Marblehead forward picked up a loose ball in a scramble in front of the Andover nets and pushed it by the home defense to tie it at 1-1 after three.

Marblehead started out strong in the final period, once again pressuring the Andover defense. Halfbacks Christina DellaCroce and Larry Aiello had all they could do to keep the ball out when, finally, after repeated attempts, Marblehead popped one in.

Andover now woke up and reversed the trend of the game. Chris DiClemente and Ted McEnroe demonstrated fine ball movement as they had several near misses. Mark Baldwin crossed one from the wing which narrowly escaped going in; shortly afterwards he had a chance from five feet out, but a crowded area caused the ball to get tangled up in a maze of opposing feet.

The Golden Warriors undaunted spirit was indeed impressive, but unfortunately it proved to be futile as the final whistle blew ending it at 2-1, Marblehead. Needless to say, The Golden Warriors were disappointed, but will have another crack at a Marblehead crew next week as they host the C team on Sacred Heart Field at 4 Saturday afternoon.

Andover's second under 10 team, consisting mostly of second graders, found themselves up against a much older, much older, much larger, and much more experienced crew from Marblehead, but fought nobly as they displayed great courage against overwhelming odds. The game saw a scoreless first half as Andover goalie Richard Bourdelais enticed the crowd with brilliant saves and complete defensive domination. His saves often started offensive drives by players like Glenn Livermore and Dave Bartle, both of whom hassled the Marblehead defense with fine passing and skillful shooting. The second half gave Andover the wind and added hope, as things now seemed to be going their way. Now, however, the experience of the Marblehead team began to show. Fullbacks Jeff Smith and Brian Cronin did their best to turn the red attack away, but Marblehead soon began to find the range, and before long had popped in five quick goals. Andover was not to be shutout, and on a fine exhibition of soccer talent, forward Glenn Livermore snapped the nets for Andover to make the final score 5-1.

Next Saturday the Andover squad will travel to Lawrence for another crack at the win column.

The game of the week had to be the match between the two undefeated Andover under 12 teams.

Again, the wind played a role as the team with the gusty backing seemed to dominate at any given time. However, individual and team talent was the primary control factor of this match which proved to be an exciting and skillfully played game. Both teams came out ready to win, each threatening the others goal, but each in turn being turned away by marvelous defensive play.

For the Bullets it was the fullback team of Curt Oliver and Paul Hunt along with a new talent in the goal, John Crawford, which frustrated the opposing attack.

For the Strikers it was fullbacks Danny Poore and Tom Duncan whose aggressive efforts made life much easier for goalies Bobby French, Todd Lockwood and Brian Bedell, each of whom donated time to protecting the nets. Both teams headed for the half-time break having failed to penetrate the others defense.

Within minutes of the second half whistle, halfback David Bates surprised the Bullets defense with a blistering shot from 25 yards out which hooked into the lower corner of the goal to give the Strikers a temporary 1-0 lead.

The applause had hardly died down when Bullets halfback Ian Yates tied the game up on a tough angle shot from 12 yards away. A defensive mashup in the Strikers penalty area gave the Bullets a penalty kick midway through the fourth quarter. Goalie Brian Bedell made a very cool save, only to have the kick retaken by the Bullets due to a line violation by a Strikers fullback. Bullets booter Ian Yates didn't miss this time as he once again favored the lower corner of the goal to put his team up 2-1.

With less than two minutes to go, newly acquired Ivan Bermejo found Chris Coots open for the Strikers to tie the game up at 2-2. The final two minutes saw a seesaw battle with both teams having good chances, but neither one able to put the ball where it belongs. Final score, 2-2.

Barring any mishaps in the next few weeks, this sets the stage for a return battle of the Andover unbeaten. The Bullets next game will be at home with a strong Wakefield squad Saturday at 1 on the Sacred Heart Field. The Strikers will host Marblehead at 2:30, also at Sacred Heart.

The under 14 division also saw two Andover squads go at it. Coach Bob Carrick's Cosmos proved to be the more experienced group as they brought their season record to 4-0-1 with a 6-0 win over the Golden Eagles. Goals came by Dan Roberts, who had two from his right wing position, twin brother Adam Roberts from the left wing, halfback Ken Saliba, fullback Kevin Wilson, and inside Terry Rourke. The Cosmos also played Thursday against Andover's third under 14 team, the Gazels, and won 3-0. Jamie Lebowitz put in two for the Cosmos as Adam Roberts rounded out the scoring with one from the wing. The Golden Eagles will travel to Peabody next Saturday for a 1 o'clock game, while the Cosmos will once again meet the Gazels on the Sacred Heart Field Saturday at 1.

In the under 16 division, Andover's Golden Strikers brought their record to 5-0 as they won a sloppy game against Merrimac 1-0 at Merrimac. Playing conditions were poor, as a short field and patchy grass limited the controlled ball play of the Golden Strikers. The games lone goal came with only 10 minutes remaining as Brian Hardy found forward Steve Luby open for the score from in close. Fine goal tending from Todd Orlando, skillful footwork by halfback Peter Price, and tremendous headers by fullback Greg Moss kept the Andover shutout alive while forwards David Yates and John Kinsky kept the Merrimac team honest with frequent drives on goal. The undefeated, untied Golden Strikers will host Peabody Sunday at 3:30 on the Sacred Heart Field.

The Golden Ales (formerly the Rowdies) of the under 19 division boosted their record to 4-0-1 with an easy 5-1 win over Haverhill. All five Andover goals came in the first half, as Haverhill's only tally came midway through the second period. Andover scores were by Dave Dauber, Neil Faigel, Rich O'Hara, Dave Johnson, and Karl Gutterman. Steve Savsann racked up the win in goal as he was assisted by the outstanding ball control of fullback Tony Flannery. The Golden Ales will host Peabody next Sunday on the Sacred Heart Field at 1:30.

We Work Hard,
We Get Results!

Why The Secrecy?

In a matter as uncomplicated as the election of a fifth member of the board of selectmen, by the remaining members of the board, we fail to see the need for any secrecy.

The four-member board Monday night voted to go into executive session to discuss procedures to follow in the election of the fifth member.

The vacancy was created by the resignation of Selectman Alan F. French in April and the person elected will serve until the next annual election.

The board had previously announced that the names of all persons who submitted applications would be kept confidential. This week, as the members decided to proceed toward the selection of the fifth member, it was further decided that the procedural process would likewise be kept a secret.

The original decision on executive session was altered somewhat to ask for a ruling from town counsel on the matter.

While we are, of course, concerned with compliance with the Open Meeting Law, we are likewise quite concerned with the process in general and doubt if it is in the best interests of the town under the current procedures.

There should be nothing secret about the election, whether it be procedural or the actual election.

The person chosen, has already, in our opinion, declared himself available for public service on the town's top policy making board. As such, we see no need for the candidate's privacy being maintained, any more than we would expect a person to remain anonymous as a candidate for selectman in the annual town election.

As a responsible voice in the community, the TOWNSMAN, has for the past few weeks, since the deadline for submission of applications, attempted to find out the number of candidates had filed. The reply has been "substantial."

We feel the people of Andover would be interested in knowing just how much interest there is in the position, which would be indicated by the number of resumes submitted.

As for procedure, it seems fairly simple.

The applications are on file. The four selectmen examine them, then vote.

Agreed, it's serious business as was stated Monday night. Likewise, we have little doubt, one selectmen will be elected, another affirmation made during Monday night's discussion.

Frankly, why not drop all the secrecy about the whole thing and get it over with.

For the benefit of those selectmen who have said they haven't seen the applications, we would like to advise that at least one has some legal talent and another has experience as a selectman in the past, which might tend to speed up the process now so secretively guarded.

A Good Start

From all appearances there is a shift in direction at the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission office these days.

Richard Gladstone, new director of the regional agency, appeared before the selectmen this week, and informed them of the local technical assistance program he has set up to aid member towns and cities.

A staff member has been assigned to each town and will work with community leaders in matters pertaining to regional planning.

His pledge to "cement relationships between ourselves and our communities," is a welcome move in the right direction.

For too long it has seemed that the agency was interested primarily in self-perpetuation and the seeking of federal funding to keep themselves busy.

Now, with aid pledged to communities in the form of technical assistance and a sincere desire to serve the participants, Mr. Gladstone seems on the right track to make this regional concept a useful, working organization.

Senseless Vandalism

Further work of vandals on a destructive spree this past weekend in Andover was the tipping of a number of memorial stones at West Parish cemetery. The stones were discovered tipped over Sunday morning by the cemetery superintendent and reported to police about 8:45 a.m. The damage was done sometime late Saturday night, along with malicious damage to both the Sanborn school and the high school.

Contracts are currently being considered for the town hall renovations. The committee assigned to oversee the repairs is grateful to the Lawrence Gas Co. for its offer to pipe the building free of expense and to the electric company for a generous concession on the wiring of the building.

At a meeting of the Punchard Free School Trustees last Friday afternoon, principal Baldwin was re-elected and therefore will serve in that capacity again next year. Grace Burt was re-elected a teacher and there are still two teachers to be elected.

A regular meeting of the Andover Village Improvement Society was held last week at the home of Mrs. Dr. Abbot. No decisions of any great consequence were reached although the group did consider the beautification of the triangle at North Main and South Union streets.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Carter Urged to Keep His Style

by Jack Anderson
with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — President Carter has been criticized for putting style ahead of substance. But it looks as if he isn't going to change his style. At least White House adviser Greg Schneiders doesn't want him to.

Schneiders has written a confidential memo to Carter urging him to continue his president-to-people campaign. Schneiders has proposed a repeat of the president's radio call-in show and another overnight stay with an average family in California later this month.

Schneiders also wants to invite average citizens to the White House to participate in roundtable discussions of such issues as welfare reforms, tax reforms and world hunger. The president, if he adopts the idea, would join in the discussions.

Higher Prices? Prices will be going up this summer at the supermarkets and shopping centers. This bleak news is contained in a confidential Commerce Dept. analysis. The drought in the West has hit the fruit orchards and vegetable fields. This will mean higher prices for fresh produce — from apples and pears to lettuce and tomatoes.

The price of feed is also climbing. The animals that eat the feed, therefore, will become more expensive. Thus by fall, meat prices can be expected to rise.

There has already been a large jump in the wholesale price of processed foods. This will be translated into higher consumer prices in a couple of months. And, of course, the price of oil, gas and electricity is going up.

By next year at this time, our sources predict, it will cost 16 cents to mail a letter. But they also predict the service won't improve.

Blue Box Threat: California's Rep. Pete McCloskey has a constituent who is a blue box thief.

We should explain that blue boxes are homemade devices that can tap into the phone system. A blue box thief, therefore, steals long-distance calls from the phone company.

McCloskey's constituent boasted that he could even tap into a secret, toll-free White House line. He invited McCloskey to try for himself. Hesitantly, the congressman told an aide to dial the numbers that the thief provided. Suddenly, the aide found himself talking to the White House on a security telephone.

The alarmed McCloskey asked the General Accounting Office to investigate the blue box rip-off. The government auditors found that for about $60, a competent technician can construct a blue box capable of beating the long-distance dialing system. The same, simple blue box can also intercept most commercial calls.

For about $1,000, a technician can tap into many of the government's classified computer systems. He can also intercept messages from a number of government communications systems. For less than a million dollars, a competent spy could even eavesdrop on our satellite communications.

Capitol Vice: On Capitol Hill, law and order are sometimes honored more in the preachment than the practice. It is against the law, for example, to gamble in the halls of Congress. Yet earlier this year, we received reports that a thriving numbers racket operates on Capitol Hill.

Our staff worked with two free-lance reporters, Lew Perdue and Ken Cummins. For six weeks, they kept a watch on the numbers operation. They placed bets, for example, with a numbers writer who occupies a regular table in a House cafeteria.

He sets up shop about 11 every morning and starts taking bets. His associates also tour congressional offices and bring back numbers slips and cash. Perdue and Cummins followed them on their rounds and watched them make their final delivery. But the reporters were never able to see the actual transactions inside the congressional offices.

However, they did see Capitol policemen come up to the numbers table and place bets.

Big Brother: A confidential Commerce Dept. memo warns that the American people are in danger of losing their hallowed right to privacy.

The federal government can concentrate an infinite variety of eyes and ears on anyone. These federal eyes and ears may be electronic, mechanical or human. The information they pick up is often stored in computers. These all-knowing, never-forgetting electronic machines can produce a person's life record at the press of a button.

The federal government maintains an astonishing 6,753 different records systems. An awesome array of information about private citizens is scattered throughout these records. In millions of cases, the information is collected into individual files. As many as 50 sets of files may exist on some Americans.

What the federal government doesn't know about individuals, the insurance companies and credit bureaus do. The right of privacy is also violated by state and local governments. Even the telephone company and cable TV companies could become a threat to privacy.

Perhaps the greatest danger is electronic eavesdropping. American technology has perfected bugging systems more esoteric than anything that ever appeared in a James Bond movie. Cautions the confidential memo: "There is no longer time to anticipate the impact of technologies before they become part of our lives."

A Voter Who Can't

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

When I became eighteen I looked forward to being able to do many things that I previously couldn't. One of the most important parts of my newly found "adulthood" was that I could now vote; or could I? I registered to vote two weeks after my birthday and two weeks before the March 28, 1977 town elections. I was told that I could not vote on March 28 because I had registered too late, but that I could vote in later elections. On May 9 I arrived at Town Meeting and tried to check in. My name wasn't on the list. I was told to talk with the Town Clerk and see what the problem was. He explained that the May 9 elections and the March 28 elections were one in the same. Two dates are actually one! Imagine the disbelief of an Andover High senior who had been in the Andover School System since the second grade who was now being told that there were actually 364 days in a year. Wait until the FinCom finds out that they are recommending more than $10.5 million for a school system that teaches children that March 28 and May 9 are two separate days. (Maybe this explains the declining SAT scores).

But really, how can two elections 42 days apart be considered the same election? This law (Chapter 39, Section 20 of the Mass. General Laws) probably served a useful purpose 300 years ago; today however. It does not. Someone who registers to vote two months before an election should be allowed to vote. I don't support instant voter registration at polling places but I also don't support outdated laws which serve to disfranchise potential voters.

THE TOWNSMAN, May 19, 1977

On Town Meeting

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

Relative to our Andover Town Meetings held May 9, 10, 11 and 12 may I make some friendly comments concerning some voters procedure to cut the D.P.W. snow removal budget by $80,000. I was amazed greatly at this — the fact being I had learned through the newspaper that the snow removal budget was in the red prior to the last big snow storm we had this past winter which thrust their budget deeper in the red. With the $80,000 cut the voters gave it — plunged it deeper in the red for the future. As the Town of Andover has about 300 miles of roads to plow it takes money and how. So votes should have given it serious thought before cutting it's budget. Also I was greatly puzzled as to why the voters defeated the $6,000 request by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin for a Fire Alarm Gong to be installed in the Town Hall in order to safeguard Town records against vandalism.

I wish someone would inform me as to the reason it was defeated. Thanks — as our slogan should be "Safety First."

In this writing I wish to publicly commend Robert McQuade,

Public Works Director for the great job he has done and continues to do relative to snow plowing snow removal for the town of Andover.

In our area Andover seems to hold the record for good plowing of our roads — this is very beneficial to Andover residents. With the $80,000 cut it will make it very difficult for P.W.D. Robert McQuade to maintain that record. I feel he will do his best with the money allotted to him by the voters. Good luck Mr. McQuade, you will need it.

Newcomers Officers

Director Explains Work To Chapter

Director Judith McCarthy and Associate Director Tricia McClean of Everett House, Dorchester, resident home for adolescent girls under the jurisdiction of the New England Home for Little Wanderers were invited guests at the annual meeting of the Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends, Thursday, May 12 at the Lanam Club, Andover.

Ms. McClean spoke on their work with the girls and some of the ways the monthly donation of the Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends was expended. She explained that all girls living at Everett House have been adjudicated, that is they have appeared in court and a judgment has been made. Shoplifters, chronic truants, runaways and stubborn children are common candidates; girls with any type of drug problem are not accepted. Since a common denominator is a poor self-image, an early goal is to teach the girls to be concerned about their personal appearance. To this end, sewing new clothing, weight watchers classes, Y.W.C.A. memberships, dance classes, art and music classes, and special books have been successful, all made possible through the Greater Lawrence Chapter of Friends monthly stipend.

Also, with the Tenth Anniversary Gift presented to Everett House at last year's annual meeting, they were able to paint and refurbish their family room and some of the girls were able to select new curtains and drapes for their rooms, another lesson in decision-making and in pride in their home for the girls.

At this year's annual luncheon a second gift was made for the purpose of completing living room redecoration.

Election of officers for the coming year were held and the following were unanimously elected to serve: president, Mrs. J. 'Women In Transition' Theme For Luncheon

As increasing numbers of women move into a wider variety of jobs outside the home they are faced with considerations such as the options that are available, how to take advantage of them, the kinds of training or education that are required and where this is available, the value of volunteer experience, and employers' hiring criteria.

In response to these needs the Andover-Georgetown Branch of the American Association of University Women will sponsor, as a community service, a special luncheon for "Women in Transition." A panel of professionals will provide a wealth of information, experience, and counseling to assist those considering a career change or the entry or reentry into jobs, education, or volunteer service. The panelists include the Assistant Dean of the Merrimack College Department of Continuing Education, The Executive Board Vice President of the Volunteer Inservice Program, the EEOC Manager of Sanders Association, and the Public Relations Director of the widening opportunity research center.

The luncheon will be held on Saturday, June 11, starting at noon, at the West Parish Church, Corner of Lowell St. (Rte. 133) and Reservation Road, Andover. A buffet of salads and desserts will be served, all prepared by branch members. A fee for both the meal and the panel will be used to defray expenses with the remainder going to the Educational Foundations Program administered nationally by AAUW to advance higher education for women.

The deadline for reservations is June 3. For ticket information

Saint John Passion To Be Given May 30

On Monday, May 30, Memorial Day evening, at 7 o'clock p.m. the Phillips Academy Music Department will present a performance of the Passion according to Saint John by Johann Sebastian Bach. The performance will take place on the Phillips Academy campus in the Cochran Memorial Chapel.

The Passion According to Saint John, or the Saint John Passion, was presumably composed just before Bach's official appointment as cantor of the Saint Thomas Church in Leipzig. This work was written for and performed on Good Friday, as is the tradition with the passion story. This tradition of enacting the passion story dates back from the Medieval Ages.

The music centers around the Evangelist, which will be sung by Crayton Bedford, who gives a continuous narrative describing scenes, and characters from the story. The role of Jesus will be presented by, Charles Apgar and Pilate will portrayed by Robert Lloyd. Various arias and solos will be performed by other musicians from the Andover community and members of the Choir of Phillips Academy, Andover.

The audience, as was the tradition with Lutheran congregations, will be encouraged to join the performers in singing most of the chorales, which will be printed in the program. There will also be a collection taken to help defray the cost of presenting such a monumental work.

The public is invited to attend.

Mailbox Improvement Week Set

The Postal Service has designated May 23-28, 1977 as "Mailbox Improvement Week." George K. DiFalco, officer in charge, at the Andover Post Office, announced today.

The purpose of this program is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather and are neat in appearance, conveniently located, and safe to use. These contribute significantly to the appearance of the countryside and the streets in suburban areas.

Mail boxes of the approved traditional or contemporary design are required whenever a mailbox is newly installed or an unsuitable receptacle is replaced. A list of approved manufacturers of these boxes may be obtained from your local postmaster.

DiFalco further stated that any question in regards to the correct height or type of stand may also be obtained at your Post Office.

Where the use of street names and house numbers has been authorized, the house number will appear on the box. If the box is located on a street other than the one in which the customer resides, the street name and house number must be inscribed on the box.

In all instances, the placing of the owners name is optional.

The customers cooperation in this program can contribute to a more efficient delivery operation, and the result is an improved service to the entire route.

Tony Valenti In Sacred Concert

Internationally-known tenor Tony Valenti will be in sacred concert at St. George's E.P.M. Church on June 3, at 7:30 p.m. Valenti, prior to his conversion to Jesus Christ, sang on Broadway and was a popular nightclub entertainer in many top clubs worldwide, and has worked with the biggest names in show business today. Tony received his vocal training from Irene Williams of South Philadelphia, who years before had trained the renowned Mario Lanza. Tony has that magical, stentorian quality in his voice and personality that leaves the listener on the edge of his seat as each portion of the program unfolds. He, in fact, has been paid tribute to be the greatest tenor since Mario Lanza.

JoAnn, Tony's wife, also takes part in each program, telling of the life she and Tony lived prior to his changed life, and the terrible problems he experienced from drugs, alcohol and the nightclub scene, and then the tremendous transformation after Tony accepted Christ into his life.

The Valenti's have dedicated their lives to fulltime service for God and make their home in Philadelphia. His life story is in the process of being written, and should be released in a few months, after which the story will be filmed.

Valenti makes his appearance in a 2-hour concert at St. George's E.P.M. Church, Caledon and Phillips Street.

Methuen. This program is open to the public. There is no charge for admission, but a free will offering will be taken.

Migrating birds probably indicated land areas to early explorers. The flight of the golden plover between Bering Strait and South Pacific islands may have alerted the Tahitians to the existence of Hawaii. The Azores are named for hawks (acores) which the Portuguese probably followed west, Massachusetts Audubon tells us. The wheatear, a thrush that migrates between Europe and northern North America, may have been noticed by the Vikings.

The blue color of blue jays is not pigment; it is caused by minute structures in the feathers that reflect blue and absorb other colors. If the feather of a blue jay is ground up it will appear gray.

Green pigment is very rare in birds; the green is usually a combination of yellow pigment and feather construction that reflects blue, Massachusetts Audubon says.

DESIGNED FOR THE WIND AS WELL AS THE EYE.

Scirocco's lines are drawn by Giugiaro, the man who designed the Maserati. Not only is it hard for the eye to resist, the sleek wedge styling also cuts through wind resistance. That's one of the reasons it's able to leap from 0 to 50 in just 7.5 seconds.

Scirocco. The design which makes it eye-catching makes it difficult to catch.

Happiness Is A Bat

"Symbolic Animals in Oriental Art" will be the subject of Libby Ingalls' gallery tour at the Peabody Museum of Salem on Tuesday afternoon, May 23, at 2:30. Did you know that in Japan a bat stands for happiness? Or that in China a crane is the symbol for longevity? The talk will explore some of the reasons behind these mysterious relationships. Looking at the beautiful embroidered panels that Chinese mandarins wore, the different animals depicted will have a new meaning. And the collection of carved ivory figures will have a new depth when the monkey on the street vendor's back is explained or you understand why the sweet looking lady in her graceful kimono is holding a pig so tenderly.

The female Nile crocodile lays 16 to 80 eggs, buries them and defends the nest for 90 days of incubation when she does not eat. When the hatchlings call from inside the eggs, she digs them out. They hatch and she collects them all in her mouth and releases them in water. They swim back to land and are protected by their parents for 12 weeks, Massachusetts Audubon says.

normal course of assignment to dispatcher, or desk work.

The firefighters union did not waive its right to bargain for the civilian dispatchers, is another point in contention.

The order states that the town shall cease and desist from the use of civilian employees within ten days, unless the matter can be negotiated through bargaining.

As for the matter of back pay for firefighters, Austin could not give an estimate of what the amount of money involved would be, since the order had only been received on Monday.

The order does not effect, at the moment, the negotiation of a new contract between the firefighters and the town which has been going on for almost a two year period.

Firefighters are now in the process of seeking final and binding arbitration in the contract dispute, following receipt of a Fact Finder's report.

In addition to several provisions in the report from the fact finder, the dispute centers on wages, which are recommended to be increased by seven per cent as of July 1976 and another seven per cent on July 1, 1977.

Some other provisions call for putting into effect as of July 1, 1976 the town's offer of $150 for tuition for Emergency Medical Training courses, extension of longevity provisions to grant $500 to persons with 25 years or more of service, granting of Martin Luther King Day as a paid holiday, and sick leave accumulative to 194 days.

Member Election Still Undecided

No action was taken on the appointment of a fifth selectman by the remaining four members of the board Monday night.

Initially the four members had decided to go into executive session to discuss procedures for electing the fifth member, who would replace Alan French who resigned in April.

Instead the board decided to ask town counsel for a ruling to see if they could meet in closed session to discuss the matter.

Chairman Susan T. Poore said the matter would be in executive session and asked Assistant Town Administrator Sheldon S. Cohen to read from the open meeting law.

Cohen noted a chapter which allows boards to comply with special laws. He said the town's charter is a special law and the selectmen are to follow prescribed procedures for the election of a replacement. He said the provision allowed for the executive session.

Mrs. Poore said that the names would not be made public. She said she did not know how many candidates there were and that the matter was not going to become a numbers game.

As for not releasing the names of the candidates, she said she felt the confidentiality was necessary in order that those not elected would not think there was something negative about their not being selected.

Selectman Richard J. Bowen said he had no intention of keeping the procedure from the public but added that he also had no intention of divulging the names of applicants to anyone either.

Whether there will be any further action on the appointment at next Monday's meeting in Memorial Hall library is a matter of conjecture at this point.

Damage estimates may run as high as at the high school.

The damage at West Parish cemetery was discovered early Sunday morning by the superintendent.

Six memorial stones had been tipped over in a row sometime Saturday night.

Sgt. Robert Parker of the Andover police detective division is investigating the weekend damage.
